Step Back in Time with the Sidney Historical Association

Join us for a captivating journey into the roots of our community. We are honored to host Terry McMaster, a sixth-generation direct descendant of Sidney's founder, for an exclusive presentation on the "Rev. Wm Johnston and His Gang of Villains: A Loyalist Perspective."

Saturday, May 16th • 11:00 AM

Sidney Public Library, 8 River Street, Sidney, NY

Discover the untold stories of the 18th-century Susquehanna

- Colonial Immigration: How early settlers navigated the edge of the known world.
- Border Warfare: The brutal realities of life on the Revolutionary frontier.
- The Johnston Legacy: The journey of a 60-year-old minister who dared to build a new life at the confluence of the Unadilla and Susquehanna Rivers.

Meet the Speaker: Terry McMaster

Terry's ancestors helped settle the western frontier in the valleys of the Mohawk and the upper Susquehanna prior to the Revolutionary War. His ancestor Capt. David McMaster fought at the Battle of Oriskany, and he with his father James served on the Tryon Co. Committee of Safety. His ancestors were living in Cherry Valley at the time of the massacre. "Rev. Johnston gathered his family and a few others to found a community that would eventually become the village we call home today."

The Heart of Everything We Do

Celebrating National Nurses Week

May 6–12, 2026

This week, the nation pauses to celebrate nurses — and at UHS, we want to begin by saying, thank you. Thank you to all of our nurses who provide excellent patient care each and every day. As the healthcare leader in our community, we are only as strong as our teams across the UHS System who answer the call at all hours. Nursing is at the heart of our organization. The trust our patients and families place in us is grounded in team-based, interdisciplinary care, with nursing playing a critical role.

Today, our nursing teams span a wide range of skilled professionals who serve on the front lines and behind the scenes, including licensed nurses, nursing assistants, mental health techs, support staff, and members of interdisciplinary care teams. In every inpatient and outpatient setting, each nurse plays an essential and irreplaceable role.

“At UHS, we strive to provide a patient experience that is second to none, and our nursing teams are at the heart of that experience. Whether you’re a patient at one of our hospitals, primary or specialty care clinics, walk-ins, or receiving care in your own home or long term care, our nursing staff will be there to support you. They provide for not just every medical need, but for every facet of your overall well-being.”

— Peggy Thomas, RN, Vice President for Nursing and Chief Nursing Officer, UHS

This week, and every week, we are proud to say: our nurses are seen, they are valued, and they are extraordinary. Thank you for being the heart of UHS.

YOUR CARE. YOUR WAY.
