Winter survival

How to prepare for winter storms

Winter arrives with fanfare as Christmas, Chanukah and New Year's Eve all take place within days of the first day of the season. Parties and shopping may distract people from the weather around them, but after resolutions are made and the decorations are packed away, it's not long before it's time to confront winter's wrath. Storms are commonplace in January and February in many parts of the world, and even March storms are not unheard of. Knowing how to prepare for storms can keep people safer and prevent home damage. If a storm is forecasted, follow these guidelines.

- Charge a mobile phone and other electronic devices to full battery in advance of the storm in case power goes out.
- Stock the home with extra batteries for flashlights and battery-powered devices, such as a portable radio.
- Invest in a car charger to charge devices if the power is out for some time.

- Keep a supply of canned or boxed nonperishable items, as well as convenience foods that do not need to be cooked, like granola bars.
- Periodically check to ensure that the first aid kit is stocked with items that have not expired.
- Refill medications so that they are on hand in the event weather makes it challenging to get to the store.
- Keep emergency supplies of bottled water. If you forget this, fill the bathtub up with fresh water. Extra water will be needed for toilet flushing if yours is a septic system.
- Have warm blankets on hand and sleeping bags for each person in the home.

- Unplug all electronic devices if the power goes out to protect against a surge and damage when the power is restored.
- Exercise caution when burning candles, opting for flashlights and lanterns instead.
- If it's very cold outside, move refrigerated and frozen items outdoors so they do not spoil in an unpowered refrigerator.
- Do not use gas stoves, charcoal grills or other open-flame heat sources for warmth indoors. Carbon monoxide gas can build up inside and prove deadly.
- Follow the manufacturer's instructions when using a backup generator for power.
- Stock up on gasoline for vehicles and to power gas-driven generators.
- Use power company websites and apps to report outages and stay apprised of restoration status.
- Be cautious of downed power lines in the area when driving or walking.

Winter storms can be beautiful but dangerous without ample preparation. TF232699

Laughter Is Good For The Soul

- Did you know that ants are the only animals that don't get sick? It's true! It's because they have little antibodies.
- Two antennas decided to get married, the ceremony was pretty boring, but the reception was great!
- "A guy knocked on my door today and asked for a small donation towards the local swimming pool. I gave him a glass of water."

Reminder The Parkinson Support Group meets the second Tuesday of every month, at 1PM, the next meeting will be January 14, 2025, at The Gathering Place, 127 Kenyon Rd. Cobleskill, please call Lenore Tsamis at 518-295-2001 to RSVP or please have any questions.

Schoharie County Office for the Aging invites you to attend our Life Chat Presented by Lenore Tsami, Certified Tai Chi Instructor will present information about the benefits of Tai Chi. Social Security Statements: Just a Friendly reminder, the new Social Security Income Statement for 2025 will be sent out to you shortly, keep them handy, this is a very important document you sometimes need throughout the year.

Important Tax Info: Our tax site will now have an income threshold for the year 2024, your income must be under $65,000 to be completed at Office for the Aging. We have started taking calls for appointments. The process will be very similar to last year; a drop off appt, copies and intake left here for volunteers to complete, and then a pick-up appt to review and approve for e-filing. Appointments will be made for a February 3rd start date. Please note we have screening questions we must ask everyone. Thank you for your patience. For an appointment call 518-295-2001.

HEAP Applications for adults over 60 years old can be picked up at the Office for the Aging or you can call to have one mailed to you. 518-295-2001.

HEALTH TIP: It's that time of year again, when people are setting goals and motivated to achieve them. Oftentimes this motivation wains within the first three months of the year though. To help you be successful in what you would like to accomplish in 2025, consider the S.M.A.R.T strategy for goal setting laid out by the Mayo Clinic Health System:

- Specific: Aim for specific goals instead of general ones, like drinking water before each meal, or going to the gym for 30 minutes three times a week.
- Measurable: Make your goal one you can measure. Spending more time outside is not measurable, but going outside each day for 15 minutes is!
- Attainable: Avoid aiming too high or too low.
- Realistic: Choose realistic goals that you can meet. Your visible progress will motivate you to keep going.
- Trackable: Choose specific, measurable goals so that you can track your progress over time. Write down your daily or weekly efforts or track them electronically so you can see how far you've come!

Thought for the Week... "Patience is not simply the ability to wait - it's how we behave while we're waiting." Joyce Meyer

Tax & Finance

THE RIGHT TO A FAIR AND JUST TAX SYSTEM

The Taxpayer Bill of Rights is a cornerstone document that highlights the 10 fundamental rights taxpayers have when dealing with the Internal Revenue Service. The IRS wants every taxpayer to be aware of these rights in the event they need to work with the IRS on a personal tax matter. The IRS continues to publicly highlight these rights to taxpayers. The IRS also regularly reminds its employees about these rights. The IRS expects employees to understand and apply taxpayer rights throughout every encounter with taxpayers. IRS Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, includes a full list of taxpayers' rights.

It includes The Right to a Fair and Just Tax System.

Taxpayers have the right to expect the tax system to consider facts and circumstances that might affect their underlying liabilities, ability to pay, or ability to provide information timely. Taxpayers have the right to receive assistance from the Taxpayer Advocate Service if they are experiencing financial difficulty or if the IRS has not resolved their tax issues properly and timely through its normal channels. What you can expect:

- If you can't pay your tax debt in full and you meet certain conditions, you can get a payment plan with the IRS. You pay a set amount over time, generally in monthly payments. See the IRS Online Payment Agreement Application.

- You can submit an offer in compromise asking the IRS to settle your tax debt for less than the full amount. You can do this if (1) you believe you do not owe all or part of the tax debt, (2) you are unable to pay the full amount within the time permitted by law to collect it, or (3) paying the full amount would cause financial hardship or would be unjust.

- The IRS has published a list of national and local guidelines about the basic costs of living. You can use it when considering an offer to reduce your tax debt. The IRS won't use these guidelines if they result in your not having enough money to pay your basic living expenses. The IRS would use your actual expenses instead.

- The IRS cannot levy, or seize, all of your wages to collect your unpaid tax. A portion will be exempt from levy to allow you to pay basic living expenses.

- You can receive help from the Taxpayer Advocate Service or from a Low Income Taxpayer Clinic.

- The IRS can abate the unpaid portion of any tax or liability, and is specifically authorized to abate interest that is excessive or interest that was assessed erroneously, illegally, or after the statutory period of limitations on collection has expired.

- The IRS can abate interest on an underpayment caused by unreasonable delay or error by an IRS employee if the taxpayer (or representative) did not contribute to the delay or error.

To find out more about the TBOR and what it means to you visit the Taxpayer Advocate Service's website.

By making this important publication available in multiple languages, the IRS hopes to increase the number of Americans who know and understand their rights under the tax law. The IRS has more tax information in other languages too. See the "Languages" menu at the top of any IRS.gov page.

The IRS also is committed to protecting taxpayers' civil rights. The IRS will not tolerate discrimination based on age, color, disability, race, reprisal, national origin, English proficiency, religion, sex, sexual orientation or status as a parent. This includes any contact with IRS employees and the staff or volunteers at community sites.

If a taxpayer faces discrimination, they can send a written complaint PDF to the IRS Civil Rights Division.

What Do A Life Preserver And A Flu Shot Have In Common?

If You Have Diabetes, Ask your Doctor.

If you live with diabetes, you're more likely to die with the flu. Just ask the families of the 30,000 people with diabetes who died of flu or pneumonia complications. Then ask your doctor for a life-saving flu shot for you and those closest to you, and about the other risks you face when you face diabetes. Because with diabetes, prevention is control, and control is your life line.
