Rogers Center partners with Colgate University to expand Maple Magic programming

The Friends of Rogers and the Community-based Study of Environmental Issues class at Colgate University have established a new partnership at the Rogers Center Sugarshack. Three seniors, Isabella Gregory, Laura Richard, and James Manderlink will be at the Sugarshack every Thursday this spring, from 12-3 pm, making maple syrup and engaging with the community.

While learning the trade of maple-sugaring and engaging the community members who come by to visit, the students will be running a research project on the role of reciprocity and gift-giving in the long term sustainability of maple syrup production at Rogers Center.

"James, Laura, and I truly appreciate this opportunity. Our goals for the research project are giving back to the community while collecting research, preserving tradition, and working sustainably," said Isabella Gregory. "We're collaborating with the Center to bring people together through maple sugaring, ensuring that maple syrup production thrives and contributes to the fundamental mission of Rogers Center."

In order to further explore the elements and efficacy of the "Gift-Economy," as outlined by Indigenous scientist and SUNY ESF Professor, Robin Wall Kimmerer, the students will be reading her most recent publication, The Serviceberry, while surveying and interviewing community members about their relationship with the new Maple Magic programming at Rogers Center.

"Nearly seven years ago, Bruce Selleck, a beloved husband, father, professor, and board member for the Friends of Rogers, passed away. As a dedicated and deeply involved professor at Colgate, he dreamed of a living laboratory at Rogers Center for students and the public to engage with the maple sugaring process. With this partnership, Bruce's dream is becoming real, and we're all lucky to be a part of his legacy. It is a great gift," said David Carson, Executive Director for the Friends of Rogers.

All members of the community are welcome and encouraged to join the Colgate students on Thursdays, from 12-3pm, at the Rogers Center Sugarshack.

The mission of the Friends of Rogers is to provide outstanding educational opportunities that excite, inspire, and motivate people of all ages to enjoy, understand, appreciate, and protect our natural environment. ➡

ChenTAC Chenango Threat Advisory Committee WHO WE ARE

The formation of ChenTAC was established due to the ever-changing risks of targeted violence and mass shootings that society faces today. ChenTAC takes effective proactive and protective measures that are designed to prevent, not predict, potential acts of targeted violence and terrorism. Through identifying and managing potential threats, ChenTAC provides alternatives to investigation and/or prosecution for bystanders who are actively seeking intervention assistance with a known individual at risk of mobilizing to violence.

With the support of the Chenango County Sheriff's Office, ChenTAC is a multidisciplinary team comprised of businesses, schools and colleges, social service agencies, mental health professionals, faith based organizations, community resources and local and state law enforcement. Collectively, we convene as a confidential group to identify, assess and manage potential threats of targeted violence.

IMPORTANT DEFINITION

Targeted Violence is premeditated violence and is usually directed at a specific individual, group, or location. A perpetrator of targeted violence is typically responding to a perceived grievance or acting on behalf of a particular ideology. Targeted Violence is different from impulsive, reactive, or emotional acts of violence. Some examples of targeted violence are school shootings, workplace violence, domestic violence, stalking, and terroristic attacks.

WHEN TO CONTACT ChenTAC

If you become aware of someone exhibiting concerning behaviors, or threatening a person, group or entity, ChenTAC is available to help. Contact our report line at (607) 334-2000 or go to www.chenangocountyny.gov/271/Sheriffs-Office and find the Submit A Crime tip button. If you have concerns of imminent danger, call 911 immediately.

See Something, Say Something
YOUR ROLE IS IMPORTANT

ChenTAC is relying on you, our biggest asset, to help identify potential threats. Without participation from members of the public, we can not identify ways to assist those who need us or protect our community.

Best of Chenango County WINTER SPORTS

Many of our Chenango County high school sports teams and athletes have once again performed to an exceptional level during the 2024-2025 season. 2024-25

A season ago The Evening Sun published a five-section special insert that promoted our star athletes and teams who either reached a major milestone, won a championship or broke a school record within that respective sport.

In April, we will once again profile the best athletes and teams our County has to offer with our 2024-2025 Best of Chenango County Winter Sports!

The special section will include large color photos of our star athletes and teams as well as detailed summaries explaining extraordinary achievements along with quotes from our athletes and coaches.

This type of sports coverage can only be found at The Evening Sun and we take great pride in presenting this once-a-year publication that summarizes the best our winter sports has to offer.

Deadline: Tues., April 8
Publication: Thurs., April 17

TAX GUIDE

THE RIGHT TO APPEAL AN IRS DECISION IN AN INDEPENDENT FORUM

The Taxpayer Bill of Rights (TBOR) is a cornerstone document that highlights the 10 fundamental rights taxpayers have when dealing with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The IRS wants every taxpayer to be aware of these rights in the event they need to work with the IRS on a personal tax matter. The IRS continues to publicly highlight these rights to taxpayers. The IRS also regularly reminds its employees about these rights. The IRS expects employees to understand and apply taxpayer rights throughout every encounter with taxpayers.

IRS Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, includes a full list of taxpayers' rights.

It includes The Right to Appeal an IRS Decision in an Independent Forum.

Taxpayers are entitled to a fair and impartial administrative appeal of most IRS decisions, including many penalties, and have the right to receive a written response regarding the Office of Appeals' decision. Taxpayers generally have the right to take their cases to court.

What you can expect:

- The IRS Commissioner must ensure that there is an independent IRS Office of Appeals. It's an office that is separate from the IRS office that initially reviewed your case. Generally, Appeals will not discuss a case with the IRS to the extent that those communications appear to compromise the independence of Appeals.

- Publication 5, Your Appeal Rights and How to Prepare a Protest If You Don't Agree PDF, tells you how to appeal your tax case if you don't agree with the IRS's findings.

- If the IRS has sent you a statutory notice of deficiency, which is a notice proposing additional tax, and you timely file a petition with the United States Tax Court, you may dispute the proposed adjustment in tax court before you have to pay the tax. For more information about the United States Tax Court, see the Court's taxpayer information page.

- Generally, if you fully paid the tax and the IRS denies your tax refund claim, or if the IRS takes no action on the claim within six months, then you may file a refund suit. You can file a suit in a United States District Court or the United States Court of Federal Claims. However, you generally have only two years to file a refund suit from the date the IRS mails you a notice that denies your claim.

To find out more about the TBOR and what it means to you visit the Taxpayer Advocate Service's website.

By making this important publication available in multiple languages, the IRS hopes to increase the number of Americans who know and understand their rights under the tax law. The IRS has more tax information in other languages too. See the "Languages" menu at the top of any IRS.gov page. The IRS also is committed to protecting taxpayers' civil rights. The IRS will not tolerate discrimination based on age, color, disability, race, reprisal, national origin, English proficiency, religion, sex, sexual orientation or status as a parent. This includes any contact with IRS employees and the staff or volunteers at community sites. If a taxpayer faces discrimination, they can send a written complaint PDF to the IRS Civil Rights Division.

LOOKING FOR AN AFFORDABLE USED CAR?

SICK OF BUYING rusty junk off of an individual or online and then spending more than you paid for it trying to get it functional or to pass inspection? At Central Auto Sales I take pride in buying quality cars that are still in excellent condition that can supply you with many miles of service in the future. I typically buy my cars from states south of NY to avoid the rust associated with local cars. I have a nice selection of cars in the affordable $4-6K range, most are low miles or low miles for the age. I'm a lifetime resident of Norwich. Buy from someone local. No pressure, no fancy hype, just quality cars at fair prices! Central Auto Sales LLC, 429 Manley Road, Norwich. www.centralautosalesllc.com 607-336-6371.
