SISTERS

Submitted by Village of Richfield Springs Historian Harriett Geywits

In the second half of the 1800s, 'proper' women were not often seen using their talents beyond being a teacher, secretary or running a household. If they did have a position in the working world, it was under a gentleman's supervision, of course, and they were limited as to what they could do.

Annie Marie and Clara L. Storer had a different idea on this. Their father, James, was an entrepreneur in the Village of Richfield Springs, owning buildings that he rented out to other businesses and serving as Justice of the Peace and operator of the express and telegraph office as well.

His two daughters were not content to sit at home. They opened a household art room in December of 1892 at the Springs House Annex with what was advertised as "goods almost entirely of their own manufacture and those of astonishing beauty and delicacy, painted by our village artists, Misses F. Barker and Ellen Clappsaddle". Embroidery lessons were offered as well as Miss Clara was noted for her handsome work in this line. Miss Annie's specialty was designing and stamping prepared linens for completion.

Finding that their efforts were successful, they decided to start in business for themselves in 1894, running a store that was intended to fill the needs of not only the summer lady visitors but also the local ladies who might be in need of fancy goods and sewing materials as well as novelties. They advertised their offerings in the Richfield Daily during the resort season and The Richfield Mercury throughout the year on a regular basis and kept up with new offerings and styles.

The announcement for their opening read:

"A new store will be opening in the Gladstone Building. A very attractive place, fittings of North Carolina pine and electric lights will be among the features that make for a very attractive place. In addition to the great variety of fancy articles, Miss Clara Storer has introduced her delicious homemade confectionary, macaroons and cake. The Storer sisters have put much energy into their establishment and the success they have reason to expect will most certainly be realized."

Their store did not close at the end of the summer season but remained open year-round for the convenience of the local ladies. As advertised, a full line of everyday necessities in linings, needles, pins, sewing and embroidery silks, corsets and laces were carried year round. Their motto was 'The Best at the Lowest Prices'.

An important part of their success was due to their yearly trips to New York City in order to obtain the most up-to-date goods for their store. By 1895 they had expanded their business to include millinery items and those from the Decorative Art Society. "Miss Annie Storer has been in New York for some time studying and selecting goods in one of the best establishments in the millinery line. Miss Marcia House, who is well known to our people as an expert trimmer, will have charge of this new department. Miss House is now in New York in our interest and we shall spare no effort to please all who may favor us with their esteemed patronage."

"We will have our Spring Opening days April 5th and 6th and will be pleased to see our friends on those days and every other day. In addition to our new millinery line, we shall also show all the novelties in spring and summer goods, trimmings, gloves, corsets, laces, ladies' furnishing, etc. etc. A. M. and C. L. Storer, Gladstone (1895) It was reported that over 250 ladies and not a few gentlemen attended the opening.

In 1896, the offerings were increased again, adding the work sent to them by the Woman's (Women's) exchange of Utica. They also included baked goods which were delivered fresh from the Exchange every second week.

A movement had been established in Philadelphia in 1832 to provide a place where women who had fallen on hard times could sell their homemade merchandise on consignment, providing them with self-help and a degree of economic independence. This grew into one of the country's oldest, continuously operating charitable movements with over one hundred such places established in the United States in the 19th century. The branch in Utica was started in 1888.

The items produced there were sent to area stores who had lady managers, benefitting them as well by helping them to become retail executives, a position that was formerly off limits to women of their social status. There was a high quality standard for accepted items. The commission was usually ten percent on items. sold.

In 1896, there was an announcement that the Storer Sisters would be moving their store into the office of the Tunncliffe Cottage on April 1st to remain there until their new place of business in their father's block could be suitable repaired. This referred to the fact that there had been a fire in the building owned by James Storer which was adjoining the Hotel Brunswick and opposite the National Hotel on Main Street.

Their business situation changed when Clara married A. Edward Clarke and moved to Grand Rapids, Michigan. Annie carried on with running the store in 1900 under the name of A. M. Storer & Co., but the store and its contents were soon advertised for sale as follows: "Fine Business Opportunity - Ladies Furnishing Store. Millinery and Dry Goods Business and Decorative Art Society heretofore carried on by the Storer Sisters is offered for sale at very reasonable terms. The stock is fine, new, fresh and well selected. The business is prosperous - books shown. The store is the most beautiful, comfortable and commodious in the country and admirably adapted for this type of business. Low rent for store or the stock will be sold without store lease. Reason for selling - serious illness and the removal of Clara Storer Clarke to Grand Rapids, Mich.

Clara (1874-1934) and Annie (Anna 1868-1929) were not afraid to showing that they were perfectly capable of running a business and in doing so, they set an example for future women in business. They surely were pleased to know that in 1903, their line of goods from the Woman's Exchange was to be carried on by another set of sisters, the Cary Sisters, who had their store in the Waiontha building on Main Street.

Donald G. Durfee III
(Donnie, Durf, Dutch)
passed away unexpectedly
Friday, January 19, 2024,
at his home in Mohawk, NY
at the age of 69.

Donn was born January 26, 1954, to Rachel (Spaulding) in Little Falls, NY. He grew up in Fort Plain, NY and attended Fort Plain Central Schools.

Donn is survived by his wife, Mary Ann and their children William F. Oldick Jr. and his wife Lisa of Fort Plain, Melissa Wilson of Cassville, NY, Jody Douglas of Mohawk, NY, Jeremy Durfee and his wife Shauna of Mohawk, NY and Jennifer Wellenstein and her husband Clay of Cedarville, NY.

Donn is also survived by his brothers; Homer Buddles and his wife Carol of St. Johnsville and Gary Buddles and his wife Linda of Fort Plain. Donn is also survived by many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and special friends.

Donn was predeceased by his mother, Rachel and Chuck Scabar, his brother, Lester Buddles, his sister, Kay Blasting and his son, Todd Oldick.

Donn met Mary Ann in 1974. He walked up to her and told her, "I don't know who you are but I'm gonna marry you someday". Donn and Mary Ann married May 27, 1978, in Fort Plain, NY. Together they raised 6 children, welcomed new babies, weathered storms, put down roots and instilled values in those children and grandchildren that will be passed on for many generations to come.

Some of Durf's most admirable traits that made him the man he was were his strong work ethic, generosity, sincerity, commitment to family, companionship, compassion and his quick wit and infectious sense of humor. He knew how to put a smile on everyone's face and his support and guidance were like no other. When Durf would get to storytelling everyone around was on the edge of their seat. Durf was well known and was never afraid to tell you about the good old days, and never feared a challenge at any age.

He enjoyed a life-long hobby of riding horses for over 60 years with his mother, brothers, cousins, nephews, nieces, children and grandchildren. Durf always knew how to light up a room and his acting skills deserved a Golden Globe. Stories were told and retold at family gatherings, parties and the weekly Friday Night Family Night, a long-standing tradition that the family instituted. The influence he had on everyone's lives will never be forgotten and his legacy will continue to live on through many future generations.

A celebration of Donnie's life will be held at the Crowley-Barnum American Legion Post 25, 43 W Main St., Mohawk, NY beginning at 5pm. All are welcome.
Friday, January 26, 2024

“I’VE NEVER UNDERSTOOD WHY MY HUMAN WON’T LEAVE THE HOUSE WITHOUT HER LEASH. I THINK SHE’S AFRAID OF GETTING LOST. BUT IT’S OK, I KIND OF LIKE SHOWING HER AROUND.”

LOOKING FOR AN AFFORDABLE USED CAR?

SICK OF BUYING rusty junk off of Craigslist and then spending more than you paid for it trying to get it functional or to pass inspection? At Central Auto Sales I take pride in buying quality cars that are still in excellent condition that can supply you with many miles of service in the future. I typically buy my cars from states south of NY to avoid the rust associated with local cars. I have a nice selection of cars in the affordable $3-5K range, most are low miles or low miles for the age. I'm a lifetime resident of Norwich. Buy from someone local. No pressure, no fancy hype, just quality cars at fair prices! Central Auto Sales LLC, 429 Manley Road, Norwich. www.centralautosalesllc.com 607-336-6371.
