PEN SKETCHES

Submitted by Village of Richfield Springs Historian Harriett Geywitz

In 1894. there were many businesses and professional men in the village that cared for both the summer visitors and the year-round population. A review of just a few of those operating grocery stores was printed in THE MERCURY that year as follows:

C. E. Goodale: An industry of such importance as that conducted by Mr. Goodale, has so large a bearing upon the trade of this vicinity as to demand more than ordinary consideration at our hands. This representative house was founded in 1874 by the present proprietor and is therefore justly quoted as one of the oldest and leading houses of the concerns whose business history has been contemporaneous with the growth and development of this village and of these, this reliable establishment now under consideration is a striking example.

The premises, occupied on Lake Street, are a 25 x 80 feet in area, fully equipped with every convenience to facilitate the transaction of business. The stock carried is always complete and embraces staple and fancy groceries, dairy, farm and garden products, confections, etc., while attached to the store is a bake house which is ample and complete in all appointments. A specialty is made of delicious bread, rolls, pies, fine cakes, etc., while prompt attention is given to orders for banquets, parties, receptions, etc. Mr. Goodale is a director of the Otsego Glove Company and the Waiontha Knitting Company and aside from being a successful businessman who fully merits his large patronage, he is also a courteous gentleman in whom our readers will be amply justified in giving their highest degree of confidence.

J. P. Finukin: Mr. Finukin has been engaged in the grocery and meat business since 1892 and in the period elapsed, has built up a prosperous enterprise. The store, which is in the Springer Block of Center Street, is divided into grocery, market and cold storage departments. Mr. Finukin also represents Nelson Morris & Co. of Chicago and disposes annually of many carloads off beef for this concern. His market is constantly stocked with prime beef, mutton, lamb, veal, sausages, hams, cured meats, etc. This house is recognized in this neighborhood for choice tea and coffee, table delicacies, canned goods, bread and pastry flour. The stock in each department is carefully selected, is large and complete and conforms in every respect to the requirements of the high-class family trade which composes his large and liberal patronage. One delivery wagon is kept constantly busy and goods are delivered promptly and by courteous assistants. Mr. Finukin has resided in Richfield since 1886. He is well and favorable known in this community, is an affable and courteous gentleman and is high esteemed by all classes for his promptness, integrity and straightforward business principles.

Fred Bronner: This representative grocery house was established in 1891 and through honorable business transaction, Mr. Bronner has achieved a success of which he has just reasons to be proud. The remarkable success of this house is the more conspicuous as it has been established but three years and is, therefore, the junior among its more ancient rivals. The premises occupied are on Lake Street opposite the Darrow House (now the location of the VFW) and are admirable equipped and arranged. The stock carried embraces choice teas, coffees, chocolate, spices, relishes, creamery butter, full cream cheese, canned goods, foreign and domestic fruits, etc., in fact, everything ever kept in a first-class store of this kind. The goods of this house are noted for their purity and uniform excellence, order and cleanliness. Mr. Bronner, who is a native of Richfield, is a pleasant, genial and enterprising citizen with whom it will be found both pleasant and profitable to deal. He personally supervises all operations of his house and is much respected and Smith Miller: The well-known and excellent meat market of Mr. Smith Miller, located in the basement of the Spring House Annex (on Lake Street) has maintained an enduring hold on popular favor. Established in 1889, this business has steadily grown until today it stands preeminent among its contemporaries. Only the finest of stock is handled in this admirably conducted market and patrons can rely at all times on getting a very superior article, honest weight and prompt and polite service. The market is neatly kept and a large, first-class stock including choice state and western beef, mutton, lamb, veal, pork, prime smoked and salt meats, hams, bacon, sausage, poultry, etc. Goods are delivered promptly and by courteous assistants. Mr. Miller has been identified with the business here for the past fourteen years. He is a native of this county and has resided here all his life with the exception of some fourteen years which he spent in the west. He is an enterprising businessman, strictly honest and upright in all his dealings and is highly respected in this community.

F. B. Getchell: A well-known house worthy of special mention in this review is that of Mr. Getchell, dealer in groceries and provisions which enjoys a wide-spread reputation for excellent goods and liberal dealings. He is a native of Oneida county and has resided in Richfield for nineteen years and being thoroughly familiar with his line of mercantile, he established himself in business in 1889. The premises, located on Lake Street, are well equipped for the transaction of the business enjoying unusual facilities for purchasing the best class of goods direct from first hands and he can offer special inducements to purchasers and consumers in pure, new-crop teas, fragrant coffees and the best brands of canned goods, relishes, sauces, choice family flour, laundry supplies, dairy and creamery butter, cheese and family supplies generally. In connection with the grocery, Getchell also conducts a first-class market where can be had, at all times, choice state and western beef, mutton, lamb, veal, cured meat, pork, sausage, etc. The utmost care is exercised with regard to purity and freshness and patrons can rely upon receiving the very best goods at the lowest prices. Mr. Getchell is highly respected in this community and is a deservedly successful business man.

There certainly wasn't a lack of available stores to shop for food stuffs. Most seemed to be located on Lake Street which was in close proximity to the largest hotels. Keep in mind that these same stores supplied a great deal of the necessary items for the elaborate meals served at the hotels and guest houses during the summer season when everyone was wished a 'Bon Appetit'!

49th ANNUAL
“FALL ANTIQUES IN SCHOHARIE”
(September 27 & 28, 2025)

The plans are set, the dealers are signing up and we are excited to be back at the Schoharie Valley Railroad Complex on Depot Lane in Schoharie Village. On the weekend of September 27 and 28, Schoharie Colonial Heritage Association (SCHA) will once again be hosting our annual Fall Antique Show.

Antique dealers from Connecticut, Vermont, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania and New York will be bringing their treasures. Visitors will find quilts and blankets, jewelry, antique furniture, stoneware, oriental rugs, glass and china, baskets and bowls and collectibles of every kind. Special heritage crafters have also been invited—the broom maker, the blacksmith, the candle maker, the potter, the candy lady and more.

The Schoharie Valley Railroad Complex backdrop is certainly one of the most unique to visitors. The Railroad Museum’s 1865 Station House and 1891 passenger car of the Middleburgh & Schoharie Railroad will be open to the public all weekend. The freight shed, which houses all kinds of railroad memorabilia, including a restored 1917 Delaware & Hudson Railway caboose, will also be open to show-goers. The volunteers of SCHA are most anxious to present yet another special show for all. Our buildings and grounds will be filled with quality dealers who show and sell quality treasures from our past.

The cooks of SCHA have put together another scrumptious selection of lunch items with our famous homemade desserts for you to come and enjoy great food under our picnic tent.

Proceeds from the antique shows fund the ongoing historic activities of the Schoharie Colonial Heritage Association. Mark your calendar: Saturday, September 27 from 10-5 and Sunday, September 28 from 11-4. There is plenty of free parking. For further information call 518-295-7505 or show manager, Ruth Anne Wilkinson, at 518-231-7241. ➡
