Roger Center Celebrates 46 Years of Winter Living Celebration

Experience the joy of winter during the 46th Annual Winter Living Celebration, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on February 3 at Rogers Center in Sherburne. This event is hosted by Friends of Rogers with help from several regional organizations such as the Bull Thistle Hiking Club and the 209th Chapter of Trout Unlimited.

“This is one of those special events that has a momentum all of its own. Hundreds of people show up every year to volunteer and to celebrate. It is the quintessential celebration of the winter season and it is an honor to host it here.” said David Carson, Friends of Rogers Executive Director.

This year the Winter Living Celebration debuts the newly renovated Bird Cabin after nearly two years of construction. At the Bird Cabin visitors can participate in fun child-focused activities like storytelling with our local libraries, and “All about Groundhogs” with Stephanie Crain, a nod to Groundhog Day the previous day. Cornell Cooperative Extension’s 4H and Grow, Cook, & Serve programs will also be in attendance with even more fun activities, and outside the Cabin visitors can try their skills with crosscut sawing and enjoy roasting marshmallows.

Visitors have the opportunity to become winter anglers at the ice fishing demonstration, while the DEC Environmental Conservation Officers just upstream demonstrate safety tips while you’re on the ice.

In keeping with Winter Living Celebration tradition, watch Stan the Ice Man turn ice into works of art and get up close and personal with our local feathered friends by becoming a human bird feeder.

Once you’ve had a chance to walk around, relax on a horse-drawn wagon ride around Rogers Center’s property, admiring all it has to offer or go inside the Rogers Education Center to warm up and listen to live music in the gallery.

Thanks to the Chenango Bird Club and the Rotary Club of Sherburne, food and refreshments will be available for purchase, with all proceeds to benefit Friends of Rogers.

Rogers Center is operated by Friends of Rogers Environmental Education Center, Inc., a nonprofit organization that offers educational programs for all ages. Seasonal winter hours are from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday, and from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday.

For more information, call (607) 674-4733 or visit them on the web at friendsofrogers.org

The mission of the Friends of Rogers is to provide outstanding educational opportunities that excite, inspire, and motivate people of all ages to enjoy, understand, appreciate, and protect our natural environment. ➡

TAX GUIDE

HOW TO CHOOSE A TAX RETURN PREPARER

If you choose to have someone prepare your tax return, choose that preparer wisely. A paid tax return preparer is primarily responsible for the overall substantive accuracy of your return and by law, is required to sign the return and include their preparer tax identification number (PTIN) on it. Although the tax return preparer always signs the return, you're ultimately responsible for the accuracy of every item reported on your return. Anyone paid to prepare tax returns for others should have a thorough understanding of tax matters and is required to have a PTIN. You may want to ask friends, co-workers, or your employer for help in selecting a competent tax return preparer.

Choose a tax return preparer you'll be able to contact in case the IRS examines your return and has questions regarding how your return was prepared. You can designate your paid tax return preparer or another third party to speak to the IRS concerning the preparation of your return, payment/refund issues, and mathematical errors. The third-party authorization checkbox on IRS tax forms gives the designated party the authority to receive and inspect returns and return information and to discuss the processing of your current tax return, including the status of refunds for one year from the original due date of your return (without regard to extensions). Exception: The third-party authorization checkbox for Form 709, United States Gift (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return expires three years from the date of filing. See Topic No. 312 for information on how to extend the authority to receive and inspect returns and return information to a third party using Form 8821, Tax Information Authorization.

Steps You Should Take to Find a Tax Return Preparer

Most tax return preparers are professional, honest, and provide excellent service to their clients. However, dishonest and unscrupulous tax return preparers who file false income tax returns do exist. See Make a Complaint About a Tax Return Preparer if you have been financially impacted by a tax return preparer's misconduct or improper tax preparation practices. You should always check your return for errors to avoid potential financial and legal problems.

The following points will assist you when selecting a tax return preparer:

- Be wary of tax return preparers who claim they can obtain larger refunds than others can.
- Avoid tax return preparers who base their fees on a percentage of the refund or who offer to deposit all or part of your refund into their financial accounts.
- Ensure you use a preparer with a PTIN. Paid tax return preparers must have a PTIN to prepare all or substantially all of a tax return.
- Use a reputable tax professional who enters his or her PTIN on the tax return, signs the tax return, and provides you a copy of the return (as required).
- Consider whether the individual or firm will be around for months or years after filing the return to answer questions about the preparation of the tax return.
- Never sign a blank tax form.
- Check the person's credentials.

Only attorneys, CPAs, and enrolled agents can represent taxpayers before the IRS in all matters, including audits, collections, and appeals. Other tax return preparers who participate in the IRS Annual Filing Season Program have limited practice rights to represent taxpayers for audits of returns they prepared and signed. See Annual Filing Season Program for more information.
